

How to apply for Hebrew University family and couple student housing - Academic year 2025-2026

For those who are interested, old and new tenants, please submit a registration request form and required documents along with a payment of 150 NIS by 15th May 2025 through the dormitory website at:

<https://dormsreg.huji.ac.il/>

Answers will be given by email to everyone by 25.07.2025 who completed the registration by 20.06.2025

Due to the high demand for student accommodation, we inform you that, priority will be given to families/couples who are both studying at the Hebrew University for at least 35% of the academic year. This does not apply to Ph.D. and international students.

Processing of late applications will only be carried out at the end of the processing of those who submitted their complete application on time.

Applicants who do not receive answers by 04.08.2025, are invited to contact the dormitory management office.

Please note: The registration fee (NIS 150) is non-refundable and does not count toward your annual rent.

1. The criteria established in the Regulations for the academic year 2025 are summarized below:

Minimum participation in academic program

To be eligible for student housing you must be enrolled in a 35% program at least (as reported by the Student Administration) during the two main terms (Fall and Spring). This rule does not apply to students of special programs such as postgraduate (PhD) students and/or students with special approval from the Dormitory Administration or the Dean of Students.

Duration of eligibility for student housing by academic program:

The duration of eligibility for student housing is listed in Section 16(b) of the student housing regulations.

Please take special notice of the following sections:

16(b)10 A couple's combined period of residence in family housing and in singles' housing (of the partner who resided there longer) counts toward the couple's total eligibility period for family housing.

16(b)11 Residence in the Ein Kerem, Kiryat Hayovel, and Lieberman dormitories is limited to three years.

At the end of the three years, students must move to the Mount Scopus dormitory, unless there is space in their current dormitory. This rule does not apply to students in special programs that are subject to a university contract.

In 2024/2025 family couple housing is planned in the following dormitories:
