

Appendix 3

Statement for unmarried couples

We, the undersigned _____ Id Number _____
(the student submitting the application)

and _____ Id Number _____ (the life partner)

after having been warned that we must declare the truth, and that we will be subject to the penalties provided by law if we do not do so, hereby declare as follows:

1. We live as life partners for all intents and purposes.
2. If I get the approval to live in the dormitory, I will live in an apartment that will be approved for me together with my life partner who is declared in the dormitory application and in this statement.
3. We know that if we separate, we must immediately inform the Hebrew University dormitory offices in writing, and we will have to leave the apartment without any obligation to get other dormitory accommodation.
4. We know that the Hebrew University relies on this statement, and on its basis considers us as life partners, and that if it turns out that our statement is not true and / or no complete, full or accurate, it will negate the eligibility we received from the Hebrew University for couples housing, and this may even be considered a disciplinary offense.

These are our names, these are our signatures and the content of our statement is the truth.
